Wisdom from your Webmaster

11 April 2005

Dear David,

It is important for me to keep you apprised of information that is crucial to performing business online in a safe and productive manner. So, I have created this newsletter, that I will publish occasionally, to inform you of issues that I feel are important in your day to day dealings on the internet.

Microsoft Security Bulletin Advance Notification

You should be aware on April 12, 2005, (tomorrow), the Microsoft Security Response Center is planning to release eleven security updates.

- 5 Microsoft Security Bulletins affecting Microsoft Windows. Critical. Some of these updates will require a restart.
- 1 Microsoft Security Bulletin affecting Microsoft Office. Critical. These updates will not require a restart.
- 1 Microsoft Security Bulletin affecting MSN Messenger. Critical. These updates may require a restart.
- 1 Microsoft Security Bulletin affecting Microsoft Exchange. Critical. These updates will not require a restart.

In addition, Microsoft will release:

- An updated version of the Microsoft Windows Malicious Software Removal Tool on Windows Update and the Download Center. Note that this tool will NOT be distributed using Software Update Services (SUS).
- 2 NON-SECURITY High-Priority Updates for Windows on the Windows Update site. These will be distributed to Software Update Services and are not required to install the security updates.
